CommunitySafe Named a Preferred Vendor of the Goddard Schools

CINCINNATI, OH, January 6, 2009 – CommunitySafe

(www.communitysafe.com), a leading provider of instant alert and communication solutions for schools, municipalities, churches and other community organizations, powered by OneCommand, (www.onecommand.com), has been named a preferred vendor of the Goddard Schools. As a result of this appointment, CommunitySafe will enable effective and timely communications between the Goddard Schools and its staff and parents via voice, text and email messages.

“CommunitySafe will be a tremendous resource for the Goddard Schools that will help us to deliver quick and effective communication to staff and parents. Goddard Systems is excited about the opportunity and reliability that CommunitySafe affords our schools,” explains Dana Kline, Vice President of Operations for Goddard Systems, Inc.

Whether communicating emergency instruction or simply providing timely, relevant information such as special school event announcements, Goddard School forums, or parent-teacher conference notifications, CommunitySafe enables seamless, web-based message delivery.

“Consistent communication between a school and its parents and staff is critical in keeping all parties involved and informed. Especially in times of crisis, efficient communication can mean the difference between calm and chaos. CommunitySafe offers a simple and powerful resource that helps to keep a school connected when it matters most,” CommunitySafe Team Lead, Amberly Schmidtgoessling explains. “Being named a preferred vendor by Goddard Systems is an exciting opportunity and we look forward to partnering in their continued growth and success.”
